United Nations S/AC.38/2000/7

Security Council

Distr.: General
26 June 2000

Original: English

Security Council Committee established pursuant to resolution 1298 (2000) concerning the situation between Eritrea and Ethiopia

Note verbale dated 16 June 2000 from the Permanent Representative of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland to the United Nations addressed to the Chairman

Pursuant to paragraph 11 of Security Council resolution 1298 (2000), I would like to inform the Committee of the steps taken by Her Majesty's Government to implement paragraph 6 of the resolution.

The Eritrea and Ethiopia (United Nations Sanctions) Order 2000 came into force on 16 June 2000 and will remain in force until 17 May 2001, unless the Security Council takes any decision which has the effect of extending, cancelling or suspending the operation of the resolution.

Except under the authority of a written licence granted by the Secretary of State, the Order prohibits:

- The export of military goods (specified in Schedule 1 to the Order) from the United Kingdom to any destination in Eritrea or Ethiopia, or to any destination for the purpose of delivery, directly or indirectly, to or to the order of any person in Eritrea or Ethiopia;
- The provision to a person connected with Eritrea or Ethiopia of any technical assistance or training related to the supply, delivery, manufacture, maintenance or use of any goods specified in Schedule 1 to the Order.

The Order applies to anyone in the United Kingdom and to British nationals and companies, wherever they may be.

Similar Orders impose the same restrictions in relation to the Overseas Territories and Crown Dependencies.

(Signed) Jeremy Greenstock
